

Yale School of Management Pre-Leadership Program

WHO? The Pre-MBA Leadership Program is tailored to current sophomore and junior undergraduate students of color from non-traditional pre-MBA academic tracks. We strongly encourage students from the liberal arts, science, and engineering fields to apply.

All applicants must demonstrate strong leadership potential and a commitment to diversity and inclusion in school and in the workplace. Competitive applicants will also show their interest in exploring the possibilities of MBA study.

The program is also open to a limited number of exceptional college seniors and recent graduates (anyone who received their baccalaureate degree in or after the spring of 2009), as well as undergraduate business and economics majors.

WHEN? June 13 – 26, 2010.

WHERE? The Program will be held on the Yale School of Management Campus in New Haven, Connecticut. Students will stay in a Yale dorm with fellow Pre-MBA Leadership Program attendees and attend classes in School of Management facilities.

COST? The Yale School of Management will cover tuition, all program materials, housing, and most meals. Students will be required to send a $250 deposit in order to enroll in the program, but the full amount will be refunded upon completion of the Program. Students are required to cover the cost of their travel to and from New Haven, as well as a few meals and incidental expenses. Financial assistance may be available for students who request it in advance and are prepared to demonstrate their need.

The deadline to apply is March 18, 2010. The application and additional details are available at <http://premba.som.yale.edu/?q=about>.
