

Frugal DAD Financial Aid Site and Less Expensive Online Colleges and Universities Degree Programs

Cheap Online Colleges <<http://frugaldad.com/cheap-online-colleges/>> If you are searching for an online accredited college program and you want to use your Tribal funds wisely, the Frugal Dad Financial Aid site provides the cost of attendance for a number of colleges and universities that charge lower tuition fees. You can also verify the college or university's accreditation by going to <http://ope.ed.gov/accreditation/Search.aspx> and typing in the name and address of the college or university.

Online College Courses <<http://www.onlinecourses.com/>> - The site is a free and comprehensive resource that is a collection of open college course that spans videos, audio lectures, and notes given by professors at Harvard, Princeton and MIT. It aggregates the best available open courseware for students and professionals, all in a conveniently searchable online courseware platform.

Ms. Elizabeth Turner shared the above information with us. We appreciate all information that will help our Tribal people in their pursuit of a higher education degree.