(Nashville) - - The United States Department of Health and Human Services Indian Health Service (IHS) is honoring employees, partners, and members of the Nashville Area Office (NAO). The IHS Nashville services area covers the similar United South and Eastern Tribes (USET) member region from Maine to Florida and the Carolinas to Texas. IHS Area Director Martha Ketcher states the Honor Awards and Promotion ceremony held at the Sheraton Music City Hotel Friday (December 14, 2012) is to honor and celebrate extraordinary accomplishments made in the NAO. “This is your day to stand in the spotlight of your accomplishments and receive some well-deserved praise. It is your day to enjoy the celebration and let your family, friends, and colleagues express their appreciation and congratulations. We hope you never forget how much you are appreciated and how we all believe in you and support your goals,” Ketcher states.

IHS is making several award presentations including:

Nashville Area Directors Award for Excellence

This award is established to recognize service of an extraordinary nature to IHS or to a Tribal Health Program, over a sustained period of time. This award represents the highest level of recognition by the NAO-IHS Director
