(1) Initial Program-Leads to Initial Teacher Licensure (2) Initial Program-Does Not Lead to Teacher Licensure This program does not include a student teaching component, and does not therefore lead to licensure, but may lead to career advancement for those already licensed as teachers. (3) Advanced Program for Continuing Professional Education (4) Advanced Program for Principal Licensure.

Applicants to the program are responsible for contacting their state department of education for licensure requirements and program approval. Arizona or home state fingerprint/ background clearance is required for all practicum/field experiences and student teaching. Furthermore, applicants should consult the Grand Canyon University Catalog, the University Policy Handbook, and an academic counselor to obtain information regarding current policies and procedures inherent in a teacher licensure program. In order to meet the needs of our students, Grand Canyon University frequently adds new degree programs. For the most up-to-date program list visit www.gcu.edu

For more information about our graduation rates, the median debt of students who completed the program, and other important information, please visit our website at gcu.edu/disclosures.

Grand Canyon University is regionally accredited by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. (800-21-7440; http://www.ncahlc.org/).

Earning your degree from Grand Canyon University (GCU) represents a positive next step in achieving your career goals. Founded in 1949, GCU offers a wide variety of bachelor's, master's and doctoral degree programs in business, education, Christian studies, liberal arts, fine arts and production, nursing and health sciences. Classes can be taken at our Phoenix campus or online. Whether you're a high school student or working adult, GCU has what you're looking for.
