

CENTER FOR NATIVE YOUTH
ART CONTEST

Native American youth ages 24 and younger are invited to submit a high-resolution photo of an original art piece for consideration in our first-ever cover art contest. The winner will receive $200 and have their work featured on the cover of CNAY's annual State of Native Youth report.

Artists are asked to submit an entry that responds to the following prompt: How do you identify as a Native person in your generation?

The piece may be a picture, painting, digital, traditional, or mixed media work that explains your passion, your community, and how your culture grounds you in your identity. Traditional art (such as pencil sketches, paintings, sculptures, etc.) can be scanned or photographed in high resolution format to meet the specifications. If you have any questions please reach out to bettina.gonzalez@aspeninstitute.org.

The photo must meet the specifications below.

Cover art specifications:

- Orientation: portrait
- Dimensions: 8.5in x 11in
- Quality: 250 to 300 pixels per inch (ppi)
- Format options: .png, .psd, .ai

Alternatively, for a front and back continuous cover page:

- Orientation: landscape (but image should be aesthetically divided down the middle)
- Dimensions: 17in x 11in
- Quality: 250 to 300 pixels per inch (ppi)
- Format options: .png, .psd, .ai

Note: Photographs taken using a mobile device will not be accepted. Please make sure to capture images using a high resolution camera to meet printing standards.

Click here to submit your art! Submissions are due no later than October 25, 2017 and must meet all specifications above.
