Attention

Tribal Member and 1st Generation seniors will have the opportunity this school year to visit the campus of several local colleges. These campus visits will be sponsored by the Poarch Band of Creek Indians Education Department with transportation and meals being provided. The dates, times and location for these visits will be announced at a later time.

Listed below are some of the potential colleges:

University of South Alabama	Coastal Alabama Community College
Troy University	University of Alabama
Columbia Southern	University of West Florida
University of Alabama	Auburn University

Interested seniors should provide contact information, high school currently attending and college visit choice to: Krystal Rolin, Education Resource Coordinator by September 11, 2017.
